

Alumni Club meets Jazz

Jazz Lounge The Benny Sharoni Quartet Live in Concert

Tuesday, 6th September, 2016, 8:00 p.m.
Van Swietensaal, Medical University of Vienna
Van-Swieten-Gasse 1a, 1090 Vienna

Jazz Lounge

The Benny Sharoni Quartet

Tenor saxophonist Benny Sharoni is a bandleader, composer and arranger who is a mainstay in the U.S. and European jazz scene. Born in Israel, Sharoni studied under Charlie Banacos, Jerry Bergonzi and George Garzone at the prestigious Berklee College of Music in Boston, starting his brilliant career in the United States. Fusing together classic bop influences, Sharoni flavors his music with Latin rhythms and an energetic drive that delights audiences worldwide.

The Alumni Club proudly presents the Benny Sharoni Quartet live in concert!

Benny Sharoni (tenor saxophone) – Oliver Kent (piano) - Ignasi Gonzalez (acoustic bass)- Juris Dudli (drums)

Welcome Drink and Snacks: 7:00 p.m.

Concert: 8:00 – 10:00 p.m.